

Satellite radio is a benefit and a blessing to the public. I would consider any effort to limit the ability of the XM system to broadcast the programming that is offered in a very negative light, and will attempt to demonstrate my displeasure in the up coming election.

Allen Montero